LANJ Board Meetings Now Open to Members

October 27, 2011

The Limousine Associations of New Jersey board of directors, in response to members' expressed interest in participating more fully in the organization's decision making process, has voted unanimously to have all future board meetings open to the general membership. Specifically, the board meetings will be held prior to the general membership meetings in January, March, May, July, September and November. LANJ members will be able to listen to the interaction of the board for the duration of the meetings. At the meetings' end, fifteen minutes will be allowed for open discussion so those in attendance can voice an opinion, raise an issue or make a comment for the good of the industry.

Governor's Chief Of Staff Invited for LANJ Annual Meeting at Limo Digest Show

October 27, 2011

The LANJ Annual Meeting, sponsored by Lancer Insurance and Don Brown Bus Sales, will be held on Tuesday November 8 from 8:00 a.m. until 9:15 a.m. at the Taj Mahal in Atlantic City. The invited keynote speaker is Richard Bagger, chief of staff to New Jersey Governor Chris Christie. Bagger, a former state senator in the New Jersey legislature and former vice president of the multinational pharmaceutical Pfizer, will speak on the state of the economy and its effect on chauffeured transportation. In addition, LANJ general counsel Matthew Daus and LANJ executive director Barry Lefkowitz will lead an open forum on federal and state issues and concerns.

LANJ Finalist for Association of the Year

October 27, 2011

LANJ president Tim Rose recently was advised by Limousine Digest publisher Chris Weiss that the Limousine Associations of New Jersey is a finalist for the magazine's "2011 Association of the Year” award. The award presentation will be made on Tuesday evening, November 8, at the 16th Annual Limo Digest Industry Achievement Awards Gala.
