Verify Your CDL Chauffeurs Comply with New Federal Medical Examiner Reporting Requirements

The New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission (NJMVC) is implementing a process that will enable chauffeured transportation companies to verify if their drivers with a CDL have complied with new federal medical examiner reporting requirements.

To get the necessary information for this, contact the LANJ member services office at patricia.nelson103@gmail.com.

By return email you will receive a report to be completed and sent to the NJMVC. The drivers listed on your report will be checked for compliance and the report will be returned to you with indication of each driver's status. Additional instructions on how to ensure your chauffeurs get entered into the medical certification system will be provided when the report is returned.

Second 2015 Renewal Notices Sent to 12/31/14 Expiring Companies

If your current LANJ membership expires on/about 12/31/14 and you have not already renewed for 2015, you were sent a second renewal notice by USPS this past Friday. Please check your (snail) mailbox for the notice and renew at this time.

Please also be sure to review the contact and fleet size information shown on the notice and update whatever is no longer accurate. And, if you haven't opted in to The LANJ Line yet, we invite you to do so now to take advantage of its money-making and money-saving opportunities. Simply provide your smartphone number, service carrier, e.g. T-Mobile, and the email address you want used for this purpose to patricia.nelson103@gmail.com.

Note: LANJ membership no longer is based necessarily on the calendar year. Unless you have authorized uninterrupted participation in LANJ, renewal is due on the annual anniversary of membership — whatever that date might be.

New Operator? Check Here for Your Eligibility to 2015 NLA/LCT Scholarship Program

If you are an operator who has at least one vehicle, been in business for no more than five years, have required local/state/federal licensing and proper insurance, work chauffeured transportation service as your primary business and have never attended the International LCT Show in any capacity previously, you may be eligible for the 2015 NLA/LCT Scholarship Program.

The 2015 NLA/LCT Scholarship is valued at more than $1,200 and includes one full registration for the 2015 International LCT Show (being held on March 16-18 at The Venetian in Las Vegas), three paid hotel nights and 2015 NLA membership (for recipients not already NLA members).

To receive a scholarship application, contact the LANJ member services office at patricia.nelson103@gmail.com by December 31, 2014. You then will need to complete and return your application to the LANJ office by January 12.

If you meet the eligibility requirements, your application will be forwarded by LANJ to the NLA Scholarship Committee for their review and potential award. Be advised that only two scholarships are available to operators located in the Northeast U.S. and scholarship application does not guarantee scholarship award.
