Broadway Elite's Jason Sharenow Assumes 2016 LANJ Presidency

Jason Sharenow, chief operating officer of Broadway Elite Chauffeured Services Worldwide (East Hanover) assumed the office of president of the Limousine Association of New Jersey, effective March 3, 2016, upon the resignation of former president Jeff Shanker. Prior to this change, Sharenow held the position of LANJ first vice president.

Shanker left the LANJ presidential post, which he held from January 21, 2015 until March 3 of this year, due to his departure from A-1 Limousine (Princeton) to accept the position of general manager for RMA Worldwide Chauffeured Transportation (Rockville, Md.).

Says Sharenow, "I very much appreciate the opportunity to continue to serve the Limousine Association of New Jersey, now in the capacity of its president. The LANJ has done a remarkable job representing the interests of its members under the leadership of Jeff Shanker. I am grateful for his time and effort and I look forward to continuing his charge."

It is important to note that the LANJ bylaws, specifically Article 5, Section H-b, prescribe this leadership transition: "Succession of Officers: In the event the President shall be unable or unwilling to serve in the office to which he/she has been elected, the person holding the position of Vice President will assume the position and duties of the Presidency for the remainder of the year."
