Chauffeur Alert! Need-to-Know New Jersey Idling Regulations

As presented by Ralph Bitter of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection at the March 16 LANJ meeting, following are some of the Garden State's idling regulations that warrant $250-$1,000 fines for vehicle owners if not heeded:

NO - Do NOT Idle...

* For more than three minutes under most circumstances.

* A bus, for more than 15 consecutive minutes in a 60 minute period while actively discharging or picking up passengers.

* Diesel: For more than 15 consecutive minutes when the vehicle has been stopped for three or more hours and only if the temperature is less than 25 degrees F.

For the complete list of New Jersey idling regulations, see www.stophthesoot.org or call the Bureau of Mobile Sources at 609.292.7953 with your questions.

Three Veteran Members Step Up to LANJ Leadership Roles

On March 16 the Limousine Association of New Jersey board of directors unanimously voted to install veteran member Jon Epstein (Royal Coachman Worldwide, Denville) as the organization's first vice president.

Doing this filled the vacancy left by Jason Sharenow when he assumed the position of LANJ president earlier this month. In addition to his new second-in-command role, Epstein continues in his LANJ treasurer post which he has held since January 2015.

The LANJ board also voted unanimously to add two new directors to the association's governance body: longtime members Howard Gogel (My Limo, East Hanover) and Scott Greenwald (AAA Worldwide Transportation, Clinton).

These installations bring the total number of LANJ directors to 21, including 20 voting members (16 operators and four suppliers) and one non-voting honorary member.
