Limousine Association of New Jersey

Farming Out? Consider LANJ's Affiliate Members for Doing Your Work

Last year LANJ introduced a new membership category, Affiliate Membership, and opened it to any chauffeured transportation operating company that has its primary place of business outside the State of New Jersey.

The purpose was to forge and/or strengthen affiliate relationships between chauffeured transportation operating companies so located and LANJ Regular Active Members (operator members).

Since then, the following companies have joined the Limousine Association of New Jersey as Affiliate Members:

- * American Executive Sedan Service, Sterling, VA
- * Boston Car Service/Above All Transportation, Canton, MA
- * Buffalo Limousine, Buffalo, NY
- * CLi Worldwide Transportation, Irvine, CA
- * Desert Rose Worldwide Transportation, Phoenix, AZ
- * KLS Worldwide Chauffeured Services, Queens, NY
- * Leros Point to Point, Valhalla, NY
- * MIB Worldwide Chauffeured Services, San Diego, CA
- * Park Avenue Luxury Limousine, Trevose, PA
- * RMA Chauffeured Transnortation, Rockville, MD

* United Private Car, Alston, MA

* Windy City Limousine, Broadview, IL

LANJ operator members are encouraged to call upon these Affiliate Members when farming out work beyond New Jersey. Full contact information on each company is available on www.LANJ.org.

Focus of 2017 NLA Day on the Hill: TNC Driver Misclassification

Members of the National Limousine Association (NLA) gathered in Washington D.C. on June 14 for the organization's 2017 Day on the Hill.

This year the focus of their meetings with Congressional leaders and staff members was on transportation network company (TNC) driver misclassification.

Specifically, the Senators and Congressmen visited were asked to lead or join onto a letter prepared for Department of Labor Secretary R. Alexander Acosta that requests the secretary to review the status of TNC drivers as employees (vs. independent contractors) and enforce the Fair Labor Standards Act to apply equally to all passenger transportation businesses.

Representing the members of the Limousine Association of New Jersey, LANJ director Michael Renehan of Concorde Worldwide in Freehold took this message to three Congressional offices, namely those of New Jersey Senators Cory Booker (D) and Robert Menendez (D) and Congressman Tom MacArthur (R-3). Renehan reports the meetings went well and the staffers were receptive to the appeal he brought to their meetings went well and the starters were receptive to the appeal he brought to their attention.
