Suspension of LANJ Dues Collection Extended Once Again

Now Through June 30

The suspension of Limousine Association of New Jersey member dues collection, which was initiated on April 1, 2020 because of the COVID-19 crisis, has now been extended for the fifth time through June 30, 2021.

As before, this decision will be evaluated shortly before that date to determine if further suspension is advised.

NLA Announces New Health Insurance Rates

The National Limousine Association (NLA) now offers a health insurance program for its members. Coverage for the program starts as early as May 1.

All who are NLA members by April 15 will be able to enroll in the program at no additional charge.

Click here to access the new health insurance program webpage which will permit you to download a spreadsheet to compare your current health insurance rates to the new NLA rates, view full plan summaries and access enrollment information.

For more information, click here to watch the National Limousine Association's livestream on the insurance program which aired on March 17.
