LANJ 5/17 Reunion Dinner

Delivered As Promised!

The Limousine Association of New Jersey Reunion Dinner, held on Tuesday May 17 at the Fernandes Steak House in Newark, was advertised to be the perfect occasion to catch up, network and simply have a really enjoyable time.

The proof is in the pudding! As pictured here, what was promised was delivered. More than fifty LANJ members and other chauffeured transportation operators joined in for the terrific meal and the even better company.

To say everyone was glad to meet in person to share good food and non-stop conversation is an understatement. Looking forward to the next time already!

Retiring Industry Veteran Bruce Cirlin Recognized by LANJ

On the occasion of his retirement, chauffeured transportation industry veteran Bruce Cirlin was recognized by the Limousine Association of New Jersey at the organization's dinner reunion on May 17.

Captured here with his Complete Fleet Livery Sales colleague Barry Trabb (center) and LANJ president Jason Sharenow (right), Cirlin later reflected in his acceptance comments on his long tenure in the business and the many lasting relationships and wonderful friendships that were forged during his career.

Of special note, Cirlin has been a LANJ member and participant for decades, attending almost every event held and being, along with Trabb, the organizer of LANJ's annual auction fundraiser for 17 years. All good wishes, Bruce!
