Suspension of LANJ Dues Collection Extended Through December 31

The suspension of Limousine Association of New Jersey member dues collection, which was initiated on April 1, 2020 because of the COVID-19 crisis, has now been extended for the third time through December 31, 2020.

As before, this decision will be evaluated shortly before that date to determine if further suspension is advised.

How Is COVID-19 Impacting Your Business?

NLA Requests Your Input TODAY

The National Limousine Association (NLA) is requesting all chauffeured transportation operators and suppliers -- NLA members or not -- to respond to this survey on how COVID-19 is impacting their business so that the NLA has updated and accurate data and the current plight of the industry may be shared with policymakers.

The deadline for survey submissions is TODAY September 8 so do take a moment and provide your input right here right now.
